

“Didgit Cobblehart is a delightful character whose adventures teach simple but important lessons, with accessible language and beautiful illustrations that will attract and entertain both children and their parents. This is an important and welcome development in the world of Indonesian edutainment for children. ”

Robin Bush
Country Representative
The Asia Foundation
Jakarta

